MARKET UPDATE

- The PSEi opened January with a sharp 2-week rally amid the earlier than expected removal of zero covid policy in China, finally opening their borders to the world. Market sentiment was also lifted by the US' 4Q GDP release coming out higher than consensus, and the potential slower rate hikes compared to last year's jumbo increases by the Fed and the BSP. However, the rally faltered during the final stretch of the month on profit-taking, and as fund managers rebalance their portfolio ahead of the index rebalancing on February. The local index still ended the month on a positive note (+3.5% MoM, 6,793).

- Market activity slowed by 27% to $145M vs $200M last month.

- Sectors: Financials +8.84%, Services +3.57%, Conglos +3.16%, Industrials +2.90%, Properties +0.83%, M&O +0.07%

- Top 5 Index Gainers: MONDE +19.13%, MPI +18.13%, GTCAP +17.24%, BDO +16.18%, UBP +12.25%

- Bottom Index Losers: ACEN (-8.14%), GLO (-7.34%), SCC (-7.25%), MER (-6.09%), ALI (-4.87%)
